

Global Health Expenditure Report

Home Page

Visualisations

Geographical Health Expenditure Map

Overall Summary

Country with Least Health Expense

Democratic Republic of the Congo

$54

Country with Max Health Expense

Monaco

$55,875

Overall Year on Year % change for 2019

-0.12%

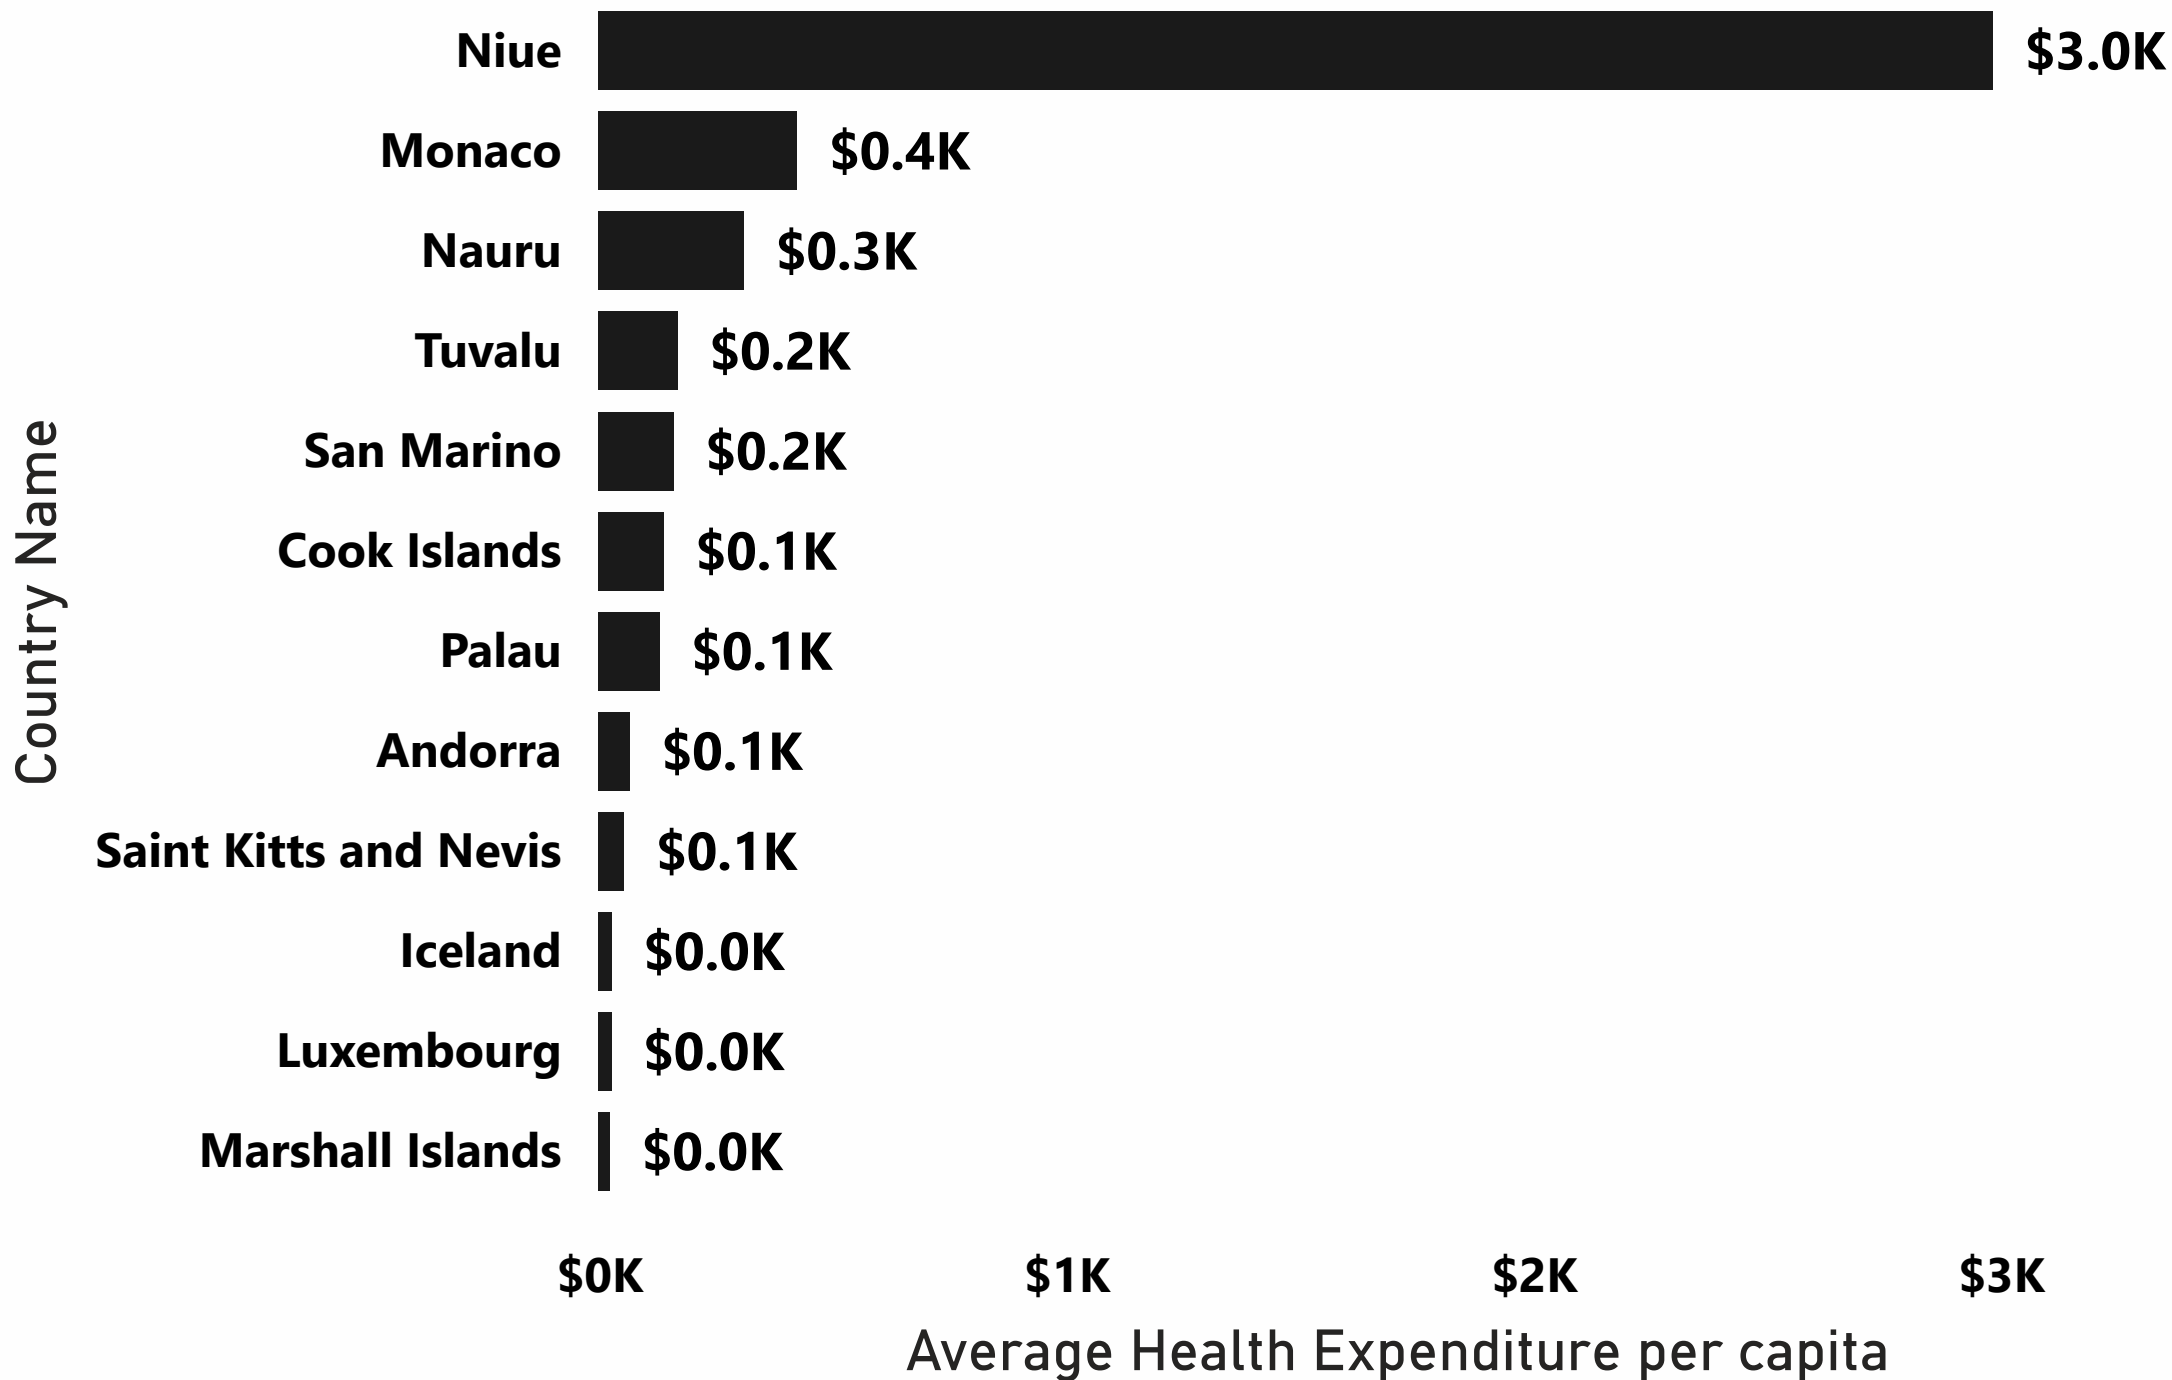

Overall Year on Year % change for 2020

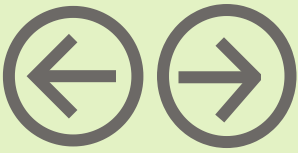

10.30%

Health Expenditure as a share of GDP

Average Health Expenditure per capita (by Population)

Select Results by Country Name

Argentina

▼

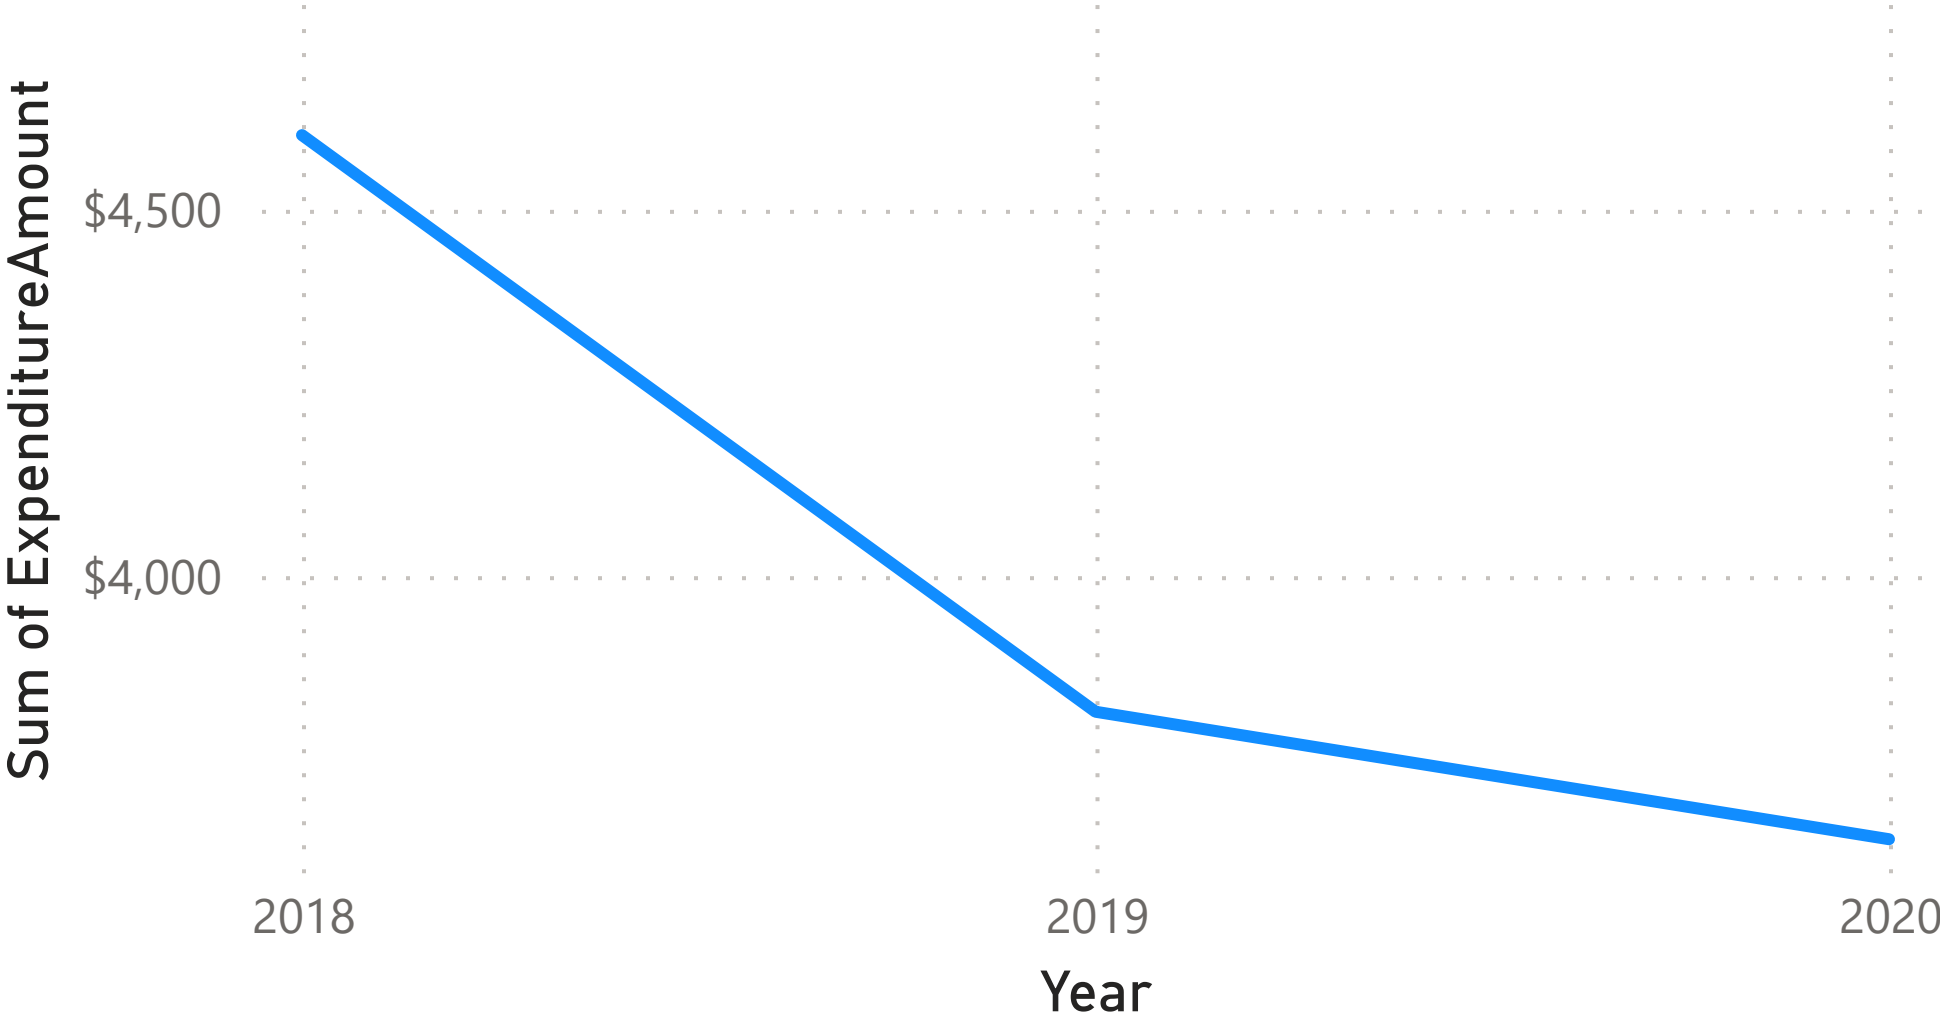

Top Health Spending Countries by Year

Monaco
$55,875	2020
Luxembourg
$49,877	2018
Luxembourg
$49,020	2019

Least Health Expending countries by year

Democratic Republic of the Congo
$60	2018
Democratic Republic of the Congo
$72	2019
Democratic Republic of the Congo
$54	2020

Expenditure Amount by Year

Health Expenditure Vs. G.D.P

Year 2020 Health Expense by CountryName

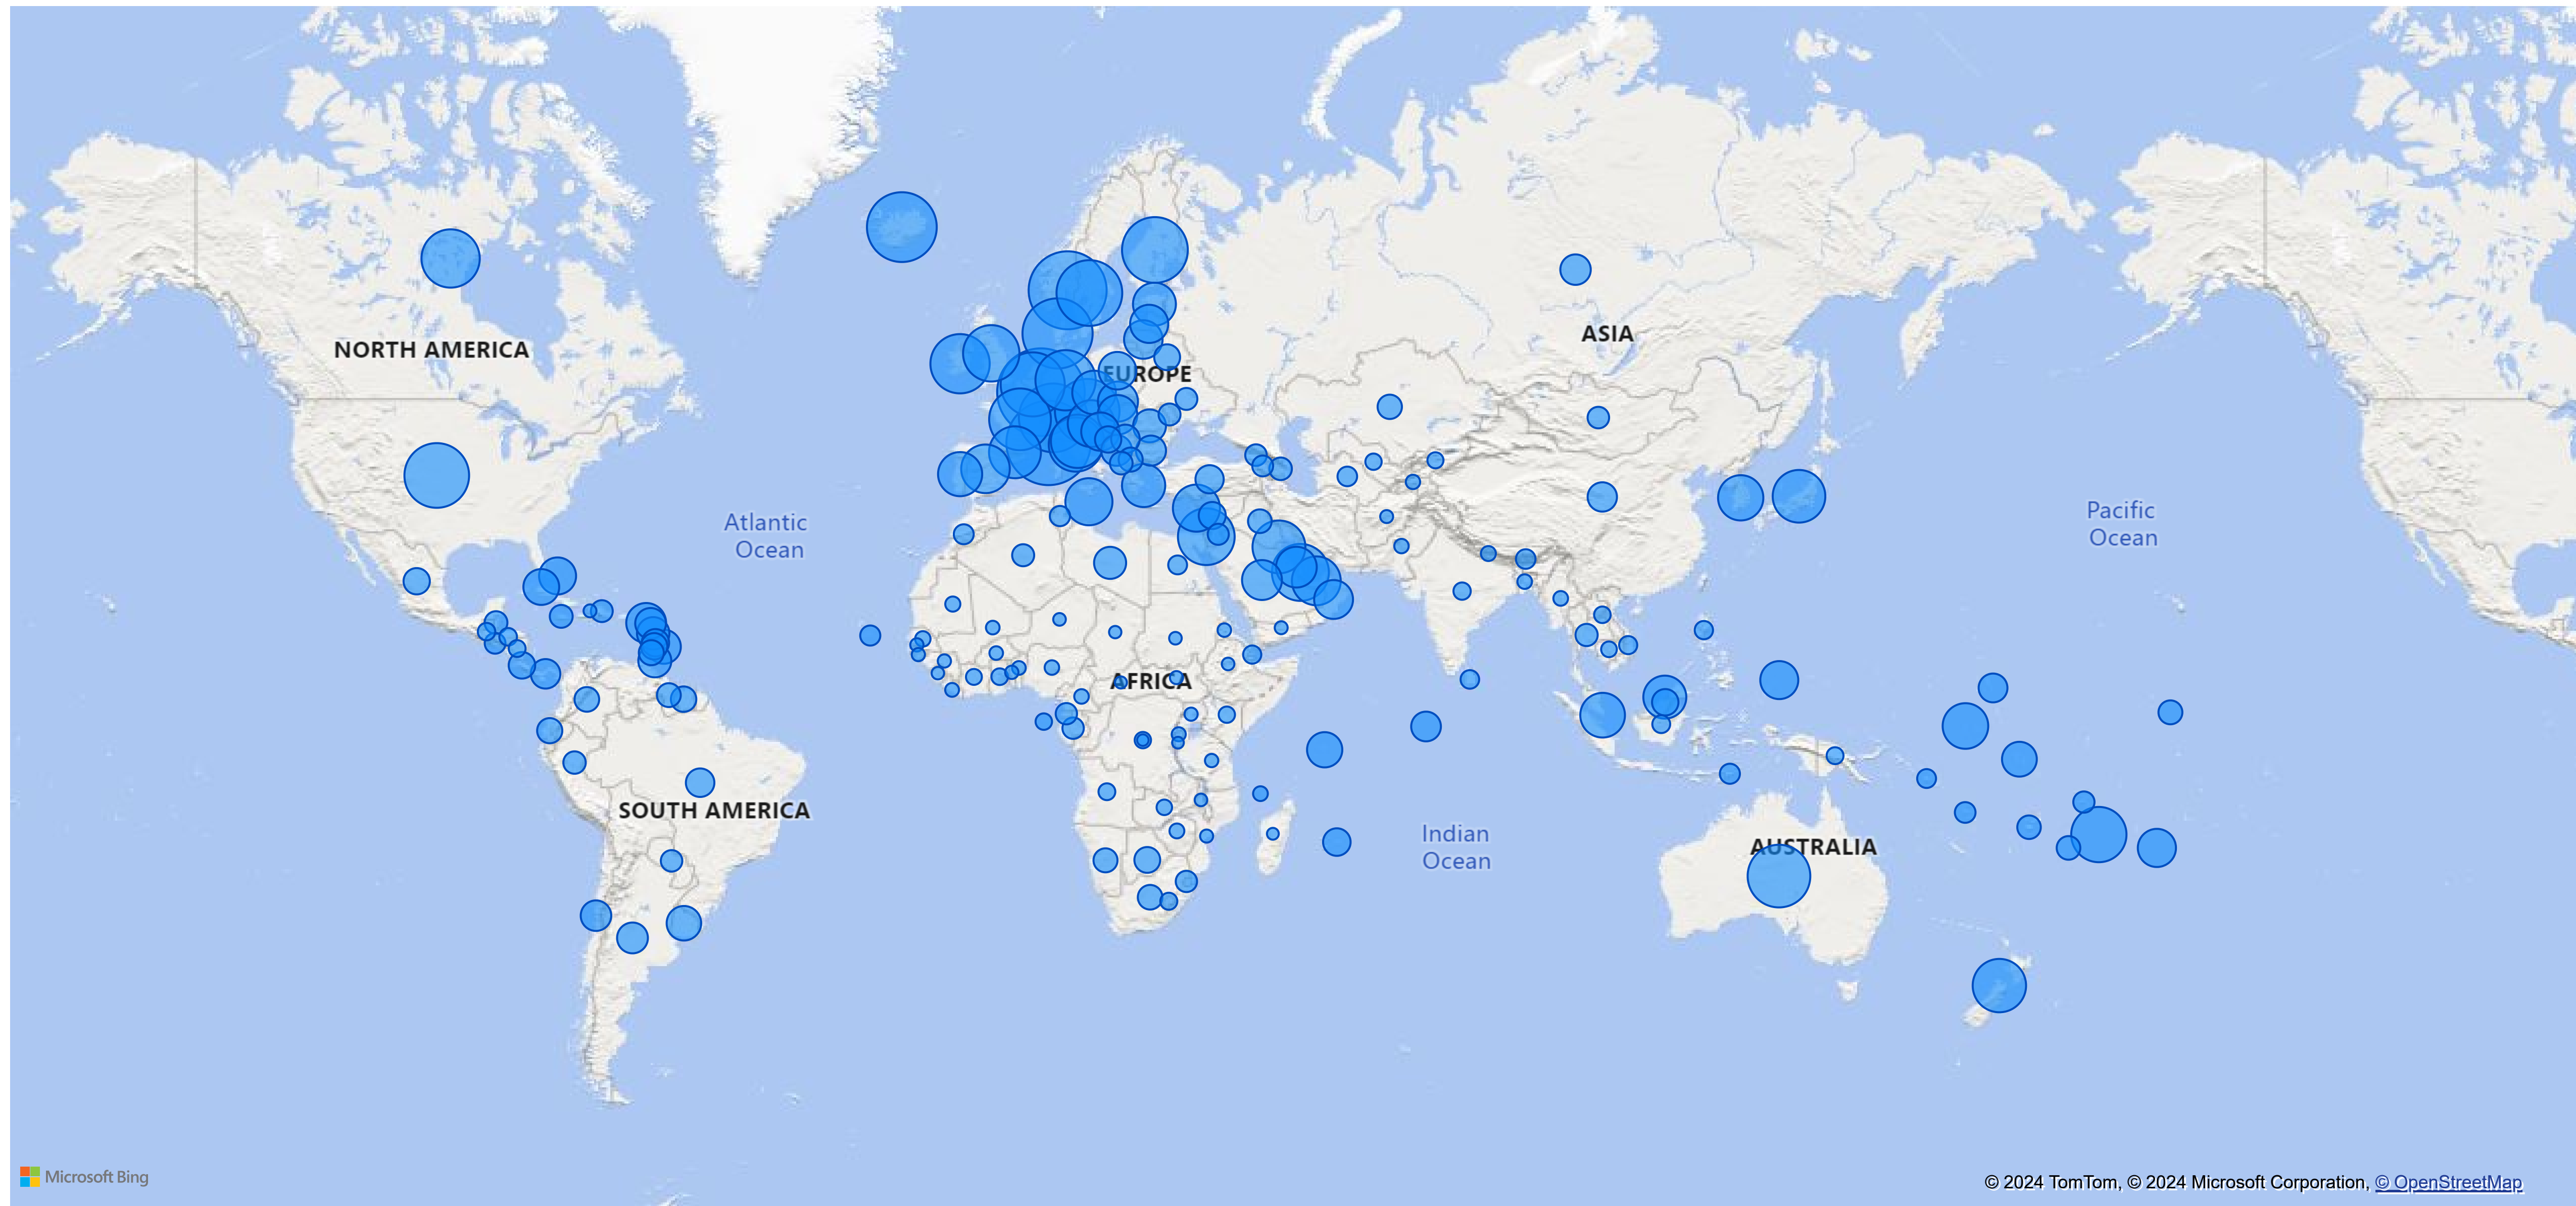

Health Expense In Various Countries

Show Health Expenditure by Year

2018

2019

2020

Key Highlights:

- At 127.09%, Kiribati had the highest Health expenditure as a share of GDP and was 129.17% higher than Kuwait, which had the lowest Health expenditure as a share of GDP at 55.46%.
 - Of all Years Monaco spent the highest health expense of $ 55,875 in the year 2020
 - Democratic Republic of Congo remained the country with least health expenses for all three consecutive years.
 - At $1,192,096, 2020 had the highest Sum of ExpenditureAmount and was 10.30% higher than 2019, which had the lowest Sum of ExpenditureAmount at $1,080,762.
 - 2020 had the highest Sum of ExpenditureAmount at $1,192,096, followed by 2018 at $1,082,020 and 2019 at $1,080,762.
- 2018 had $1,082,020 Sum of ExpenditureAmount, 2019 had $1,080,762, and 2020 had $1,192,096.